Mulburries are very happy to welcome this expansive four bedroom semi detached home onto the market in the Kings Langley area.

Situated on a residential road, just moments from the Kings Langley Common, the house has a large frontage which gives a great feeling of privacy and the large luscious green garden to the rear, really shows off the size of this plot.

Internally the house is in need of repair and modernisation throughout, but don't let this take you away from the charm of the home and due to the space available internally, the huge potential the property has.

Comprising of Large kitchen and dining area, very spacious lounge, self contained annex with separate entrance, four bedrooms and two bathrooms.

Outside space provides a large mature garden, separate garage and workshops and off street parking for multiple cars.

The village centre is approximately 0.6 miles away and offers a comprehensive selection of shops, cafes, restaurants and a library. Kings Langley primary and secondary schools are also within walking distance, with further state and private schools in the surrounding areas including Watford Grammar schools.

Kings Langley mainline station provides a service to London Euston (25 minutes) and the M25 is accessed at Junction 20 providing connections to the general motorway network.
